I hear the splashing
of the water on the rocks
the singing of the birds in the air

And I see
the sunlight glittering on the top of the waves.

A soft summer breeze
touches me

I shiver from the freshness of the cool wind.

The sun's warmth
comforts me like
the warm embrace
of my love.

The sound of the church bell rings over
the Saint Lawrence Lake :

It is time
to say your prayer
if you have not said
it yet.

Remember

you are the Lord's child.
Nothing and nothing
can separate you
from the Light.

You alone and only you can break the bondage
with the Eternal Harmony.
Harmony with the Highest with the ALL

brings forward the Peace Then without Peace
in yourself
cannot be

PEACE ON EARTH.
