Dear Publisher:

In the past, your company has graciously provided permission for the Xavier Society for the Blind to transcribe books into Braille, large print and/or audiotape for our library. We have been updating our library and our ability to provide services and we hope shortly to be prepared to offer digital recordings in addition to the tape versions. Therefore, the Xavier Society is approaching you for a continuation of its partnership by requesting permission to make the books on the attached list available on CD and through digital download for our visually impaired clients.

The Xavier Society requires a certificate of blindness signed by a physician, nurse or registered social worker. The CDs would be mailed to registered readers only and returned to us. With regard to digital download, the registered reader would be required to put in a unique password to obtain the downloadable file.

As always, full credit will be given: title, author, publisher, copyright date, and any other data required by you, the publisher. If there is a specific wording which should be used, please supply the wording.

These books would be made available on free loan through The Xavier Society Lending Library to the visually impaired throughout the U.S. and Canada. In granting the requested permission, you will be cooperating with the Xavier Society for the Blind, which has been providing reading material in accessible formats for the visually impaired, without charge to them, since 1900. In the coming year we will be launching a major program to reach and provide materials to military veterans.

Two copies of this agreement are enclosed to facilitate your response, so that you may keep one copy and return one to The Xavier Society. On behalf of our 10,000 blind and visually impaired clients, I thank you for your continuing assistance in this regard.

Sincerely,

Kathleen Lynch
Executive Director
