Dear Father Bechard:

Thank you very much for your kind note of recent date. I am delighted that you found my article to be of use in your apostolate. I will endeavor to have another in your hands by the third week of April, as you request. Meanwhile I am returning the enclosed check for your work in behalf of the beatification of Katharine Tekakwitha.

Asking an occasional remembrance in your prayers, and with every best wish for a holy and happy Easter, I remain

Sincerely in Christ,

Lawrence J. Riley.

Sunday evening

Dear Father Bechard,

I hope that this is the kind of thing you were thinking of. It is not very well typed - please excuse - for I have been working at it off and on all day and it is now well past bedtime and my husband is telling me it's time to call it a day. I have been using an electric typewriter at the office and it has ruined my touch on the portable!

I wonder, if in your register of births - the early ones, that is, whether there is a record of who the parents were of Arousen (or something like that) who married Eunice Williams - married round 1711?? Would Anastasia still be living in 1704?

Hope your ankle improves rapidly. I am afraid you are going to have to spend a lot of time doing exercises with it, until it is limbered up again. Too bad it had to happen at all, but I'm glad it is no worse.

Sincerely,

Nard R.
